

MONDO.NYC 2024
CLE MUSIC & TECH
LAW SYMPOSIUM
PARTNERSHIP
PROGRAMS

Overview

Entering its eighth year in 2024, Mondo's Music & Tech Law Symposium and CLE program is one of the cornerstone events of the Mondo.NYC industry conference and showcase music festival. It unites top US and international music lawyers and thought leaders for an all-day immersive in-person entertainment law seminar addressing some of the biggest legal developments affecting the music industry, including recent court decisions, the re-imagining of key policy matters and the impact and legal ramifications of new technology.

Opportunity & Strategy

Via exclusive assets at Mondo's symposium, we welcome partners who are looking to amplify awareness of their services to New York and US music and tech industry leaders for:

- Intimate interaction with clients
- Identification of high value prospects
- Access to startup pipeline for emerging artist, tech and IP

Who will be there?

- 1250 leading industry stakeholders: legacy executives, start-up entrepreneurs, investors, brands, media, artists & songwriters and their advisors, representatives & rights-holders including over 200 attorneys
- Over 53% C-Suite/owner/partner/senior executives
