ROLLING STONE TO PARTNER WITH MONDO 2019
ON EXCLUSIVE MUSIC BUSINESS CONTENT TRACK

Mondo.NYC 2019 Music & Tech Conference & Festival Partners with Rolling Stone for its 4th Annual Event

New York, NY (July 17, 2019) – Mondo.NYC announced today its partnership with Rolling Stone as curator of essential music business content during Mondo’s four-day event, October 15-18, 2019 headquartered at Brooklyn’s Williamsburg Hotel with evening live music showcases at iconic NYC venues.

“We are thrilled to announce our collaboration with Rolling Stone for this year’s festival,” said Mondo Managing Director Bobby Haber. “Rolling Stone’s legendary commitment to new artists, insight into emerging entertainment and technology and drive to connect music with its fans and industry colleagues, couldn’t be more aligned with Mondo’s mission. Under its new ownership at Penske Media Corporation – and with its enhanced focus on the music industry and imminent release of the Rolling Stone charts -- we are proud to be working closely together in what we anticipate will be our best Mondo ever.”

Rolling Stone editors will be curating multiple panels as part of its “Business of Music” series with a deep dive into critical issues including streaming trends, musician’s struggle to own their own work and how Rolling Stone Charts function.

“Virtually every metric in entertainment is reported on a fixed weekly basis, which is out of date with actual consumer trends. With the launch of Rolling Stone Charts this year, we counter this trend and now offer an impartial, in-depth and in-the-moment view of the biggest songs, albums and artists in music,” says Rolling Stone President Gus Wenner. “Our aim is to reflect the true impact of music, celebrate the artists most deserving of attention, and better define what it really means to be Number One. We look forward to collaborating with Mondo to bring these impactful discussions to life.”

The Mondo 2019 conference will be held daytime at the Williamsburg Hotel on the Brooklyn waterfront, October 16-18, with Rolling Stone’s panel track on Thursday, October 17. Mondo’s 2019 showcase festival takes place evenings in Williamsburg and downtown Manhattan’s East Village, Lower East Side and Alphabet City at venues including Arlene’s Grocery, Berlin, Bowery Electric, Brooklyn Bowl, The Delancey, DROM, Pianos and more TBD featuring performances from the best new artists from the worlds of indie rock, EDM, hip-hop, pop, R&B and more.
